Monte:

RTAC—still need volunteers for the weekend; some updates about the ride—this year vast majority will be rules of the road ride—a change that is unavoidable; majority of intersections will not be blocked; will be happy to discuss after meeting if anyone wants further details; Route is awesome—start times are still the same and rest stop is the same; back in plenty of time; The Now on Friday and Southbound on Saturday; Sharable on the WHD website;

Skip is Ed tonight:

Use some help Thursday to get stuff out of storage at 11am; great items for live auction; expand silent auction options; live auction more affordable; Saturday at 8:30am to help set up for auctions and fish bowls. Auctioneers Bill Perkins will be back with assistance. Beautiful weather.

Jodi:

Ticket Sales—turn in tickets tonight or early on Friday. Volunteers for dealer event or rally for ticket sales. 147 sold.

Dana:

Volunteer—drawing entry for every 4 hour shift worked at the Ride for framed bandana. Really need volunteers;

Sean:

We have money—all good

Monte:

3 rides this year, you will receive $15 gift card to WHD

Ted:

Rockton ride—10/1; new route; leaving at 8am Ed's ride; Ted holds booking contract for Country Renegades (band) have offered 3 hour concert for the auction;

Dave:

Welcome—to Road Captain team—Chris 5pm staging for parade; 45minute ride back to dealership; sat at 10 staging prior to last ride at 12:20. 2 more people for rest stop and people to help park bikes on Saturday; Ride by rules of road. You are responsible for your safety! Will be a little slower; won't own road like used to. Will be included at ride prep; still be fun; separation anxiety of the group. Route is double marked at every turn. If you get that stretched out ride at own risk. RCs will go 5 under posted speed limit. Road captains 2-3 per group. Will be checking for wrist bands. Event is free/ride is not. Road captains meet prior to leave. Enjoy yourself.

Monte:

Boat repair gift certificate—auction; donated by Judy Smith
